FIRE: Chief Erisman

- Medics have been busy – had a sever medic call and then a full arrest; thankful for New Lebanon helping with these.
- New Cutter spreader – grand paid for it.
- Ladder test – blew a seal getting that repaired.

PARK: Mr. Shell and Devin Stoutenborough

- Mr. Stoutenborough gave a brief update on pool – there was some hiccups but things starting to go smoother.
- He talked about our pumphouse and how antiquated it is. Germantown paid $250,000 to get a new one and it was $250,000 and they took a loan out for three years to pay it back.
- Mr. Shell discussed getting automated with accepting payments at the pool and allowing Community Center to be booked online.
- Mr. Shell spoke again about the fireworks. Mr. Hodson stated that he spoke with our legal council and confirmed that we could donate towards the fireworks if they were actually held at the Park since we are the fiduciary of this money. Mr. Hodson made motion to approve paying $5,000 towards the fireworks and Mr. Erisman seconded the motion. Motion Passed.
